MITJA MASTNAK, Saint Mary's University
Graded bialgebras and their deformations

Various deformation techniques are proving to be instrumental in the efforts to construct new examples of bialgebras as well as in the classification efforts. In the talk I will discuss formal graded deformations, liftings, and cocycle deformations. Emphasis will be placed on the relationships between these concepts.