

---

ALINA STANCU, Concordia University

On some new characterizations of ellipsoids

Perhaps the most known characterization of ellipsoids defines them as the convex bodies maximizing the affine isoperimetric ratio. In this talk, we will present some new characterizations involving floating bodies and, respectively, illumination bodies.