WAEL BAHSOUN, University of Victoria
Deterministic representation for position dependent random maps

We give a deterministic skew-type representation for position dependent random maps and describe the structure of the set of its invariant densities. We prove one-to-one correspondence between absolutely continuous invariant measures (acims) for the position dependent random map and the acims for its skew product representation.